HALF DOLLARS.

727	1794.	H. No. 1. A very bold even impression, hair very slightly worn, rev. still better, except that the left wing of the eagle is slightly scratched, rarely offered in as fine condition, very rare .
728	1795.	H. No. 9. Very good.
729	1795.	H. No. 10. The boldest and best impression I have ever seen, very slightly circulated, very rare.
730	1795.	Not described by Mr. H. Very crooked wreath, the leaves at the top close in on the eagle, so that there is very little space between them and the head and top of the wings, 15 berries, very good.
731	1797.	Well centered and very evenly struck, Liberty and date bold, every particle of all the stars well up on the planchet, most of the fine lines of the hair show, the prominent parts worn smooth, the ear, eye, nose mouth and chin fine, rev. better still, legend very bold, generally strong on one side and weak on the other. A better impression as whole, than the (1796) No. 144, in Sampson's sale of Feb. 16 & 17, which sold for $105.00, fine for this date, excessively rare .
732	1802.	Good even impression, very good, rarer than 1794, very rare.
733	1803.	Large date, 1 touches the hair, fine, scarce.
734	1805.	Five berries on the olive branch, very fine, the hair and eagle very slightly worn, rare.
